

2-Day Chobe National Park Wildlife Immersion

DURATION2 Days / 1 Night*FROM*USD 520 per person*MINIMUM*2 travellers

Two days on the Chobe riverfront, which holds the densest elephant population in Africa. A boat safari for the water frontage and a 4x4 drive for the inland floodplain, with an overnight in Kasane between them.

Itinerary

1Day 1: Into Chobe and the riverChobe National Park, Sedudu Island*

Collection and transfer to Kasane, with border assistance if you are crossing from Victoria Falls. After check-in, an afternoon boat safari on the Chobe River, which is the best way to see the elephant herds coming down to drink and the hippo pods holding the channels around Sedudu Island.

2Day 2: Morning game drive and departureChobe National Park, Sedudu Island*

An early open-vehicle game drive into Chobe National Park while the air is cool and the game is moving, working the riverfront road and the inland loops for lion, buffalo and sable. Back to camp for breakfast, then check-out and your onward transfer.
