

Livingstone Town Tour: Museum, Colonial Streets and Curios

DURATION	FROM	DESTINATION	MINIMUM
2-3 Hours	USD 60 per person	Zambia	2 travellers

A guided half day through Livingstone on the Zambian side: the Livingstone Museum, the colonial-era buildings of the old Northern Rhodesian capital, and the craft markets. The history behind the Falls rather than the Falls themselves.

Itinerary

1 Livingstone Museum

Livingstone, Zambia

The oldest and largest museum in Zambia, covering regional archaeology, ethnography and the Zambezi, and holding original David Livingstone material. Your guide works the collection rather than leaving you to read labels.

2 The colonial town

Livingstone, Zambia

A walk through the streets of the former capital of Northern Rhodesia, taking in the period architecture along the main road and the story of why the town sits where it does, which is really a story about the railway.

3 Markets and craft

Livingstone, Zambia

Time in the local markets and craft stalls, with your guide on hand for what things should cost and which stalls carry work made locally rather than imported.

4 Return

Livingstone, Zambia

Transfer back to your hotel or on to the border. Pairs naturally with the Zambian side Falls tour, which covers the viewpoints this one deliberately leaves out.
